Baron Moncheur Defends Cotton Mills from Some Unjust

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 16.—Baron Monchour, the Belgian minister here, has Just returned to Washington from a visit to Greenville and Columbia, S. C., where he went to look into the condition of about 300 Belgians who are empolyed in the cotton mills there. Complaints had reached the Belgian government of the treatment accorded to these people, but the minister found that these were entirely unjustified. Some of the employes who are temperamentally unfitted for the work were dissatised and were returning to Belgium, but the great majority of the workers were contented and happily situated. In one case the workers were all given spearate cottages with plots of ground for the nominal creates the employers appeared to be doing all in their power to make the lot of the workers comfortable. WORK OF BAPTIST UNION.

Wants Larger Amount Given to Support the Cause of Missions.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 10.—The adoption of resolutions in favor of the movement to ask the Baptists of the country to give one-tenth of incomes toward the advancement of the work of Christ, and urging the President to inquire into the reasons why the Congo question has not been settled, were the features to-day of the fourth session of the American Baptist Missionary Union. More than two thousand delegates are in attendance.

The action regarding the giving of onetenth of incomes followed a number of spirited addresses in advocacy of a decided increase in the income of the missionary union in order to meet the pressing needs of the work, and to enable the union to enter elds urgently inciting occupation.

The report of the committee on joint conference to consider the question of union between Baptist and Free Baptist was adopted.

Then the whole country, as well as this city, was in a state of financial depression, and no troble whatsoever was experienced in getting as many buildings as were needed to house the old soldiers. This spring, however, Colonel Gordon did not find it so easy to get quarters, and hence it was that the idea of having the hig camp appealed to him and his associates.

Demand at Jamestown

Demand at Jamestewn.

The Jamestown Exposition also has had the effect of creating a great demand for tents, and this has caused further trouble. The general chairman, however, has kept the wires hot in the last few days in his efforts to meet the exigencies of the case, for he feels that Richmond would be threatened with disgrace if she falled to do the proper thing for the old soldiers.

MODERN BRIDGE

Business Men Organize Company to Take Over Old Mayo Structure.

MUCH CAPITAL IS SUBSCRIBED

Strong Committee Named and Matter Will Be Vigorously Pressed.

For some time past a number of interested citizens have been quietly working for the purpose of inaugurating a movement looking toward the construction of a modern bridge upon the site of the old Mayo Bridge, connecting Fourteenth Street, in Manchester. Negotiations have been in progress for some months with the present owners of the property, and at last a most favorable proposition has been secured from them. A meeting of the gentlemen interested in the project was held Thursday, and it was decided to take the matter up and present it to the citizens of Richmond and Manchester.

Make Active Canvass.

The plan is to construct a first-class, modern bridge, sufficient to carry the traffic for years to come, and in order to do this it is proposed to issue preferred and common stock. A number of large cash subscriptions have already been made to the capital of this company, and the organizers believe that the income from the bridge will make the stock a desirable investment, aside from the great benefit accruing to the business interests of the two cities from the construction of this new bridge.

bridge.

A committee, composed of Messrs, James D, Crump, George B, Wilson, J. F. Ryland, S. P. Jones and O. J. Sands, has been appointed to take charge of the matter of soliciting subscriptions, and an active and energetic canvass for that purpose will be undertaken at once.
